FREE RECOVERY PROGRAMS

We are fortunate to live during a time when there are many options for finding and sustaining lasting recovery from addiction. We are all individuals and while there are many aspects of our personal journeys that may be similar to those of others, we are each called to discover for ourselves what works and what doesn't work for us. Our goal is to provide options and shine a light on different approaches that people use to maintain lasting recovery without endorsing specific approaches or recovery programs.

MUTUAL AID PROGRAMS

Adult Children of Alcoholics (ACA) is a 12-step program of men and women who grew up in alcoholic or otherwise dysfunctional homes. The ACA program was founded on the belief that family dysfunction is a disease that affected us as children and affects us as adults. adultchildren.org

Al-Anon is a 12-step program for people whose lives have been affected by someone else's drinking. By sharing common experiences and applying the Al-Anon principles, families and friends of alcoholics can bring positive changes to their individual situations, whether or not the alcoholic admits the existence of a drinking problem or seeks help. al-anon.org

Alcoholics Anonymous is a 12-step program and fellowship of people who come together to solve their drinking problem. It doesn't cost anything to attend A.A. meetings. There are no age or education requirements to participate. Membership is open to anyone who wants to do something about their drinking problem. aa.org

Cocaine Anonymous is a 12-step program of men and women who share their experience, strength and hope with each other that they may solve their common problem and help others recover from their addiction. ca.org

Codependents Anonymous (CoDA) is a 12-step program of people whose common purpose is to develop healthy and loving relationships. CoDA.org

Drug Addicts Anonymous is a 12-step program of men and women who have recovered from addiction and are committed to helping those who still suffer. We have recovered by using the twelve steps as outlined in the book of Alcoholics Anonymous. daausa.org

Food Addicts in Recovery Anonymous (FA) is a program based on the twelve steps of Alcoholics Anonymous (AA). It is designed for individuals who have problems with food such as overeating, undereating, food addiction, purging, restricting, or anyone who is obsessed with food, weight, or dieting. foodaddicts.org

Gam-Anon is a 12-step program of men and women who have been affected by the gambling problem of another. gam-anon.org

Gamblers Anonymous is a 12-step program of men and women who share their experience, strength and hope with each other that they may solve their common problem and help others to recover from a gambling problem. gamblersanonymous.org

LifeRing Secular Recovery is a secular, non-profit organization providing peer-run addiction recovery groups. The organization provides support and assistance to people seeking to recover from alcohol and drug addiction, and also assists partners, family members and friends of addicts or alcoholics.
